

Jeanne Coleman Jackson

1850-1950 Lehi Centennial History

Jeanne Coleman Jackson is the daughter of Hugh and Ella Kohler Coleman. She graduated from Wasatch High School and Seminary, was active in music and speech activities, acted as secretary of the Student body and graduated from the Brigham Young University. She did graduate work at the University of Chicago and Brigham Young University.

She taught school at Lehi, Pleasant Grove and American Fork, in the Home Economics, Art, Speech and English departments. From 1939-1942, she taught at the Brigham Young University in the Clothing and Textiles and Foods Department.

She was Home Supervisor of the Rural Rehabilitation Program in Sanpete, Millard and Juab counties; Vice-President of the State Home Economics Association in 1931-32; acted as a chairman of Utah County for the State Fair during the Utah Centennial in 1947; a member of the Executive Board of the Utah County Women's Legislative Council as Education Chairman; and President of the Auctus Club 1946-47.

She was married to W. Clell Jackson, September 10, 1936 , at Midway, Utah and became the mother of three children: Coleman Clell, Elese Jeanne, and Marilyn Coleman.

She has always been an active church worker, having served as Drama and Activity director of the Lehi Stake Board Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association for five years ; second counselor in the Lehi Second Ward Mutual Improvement Association; also a class leader work and business director of the Lehi Stake Relief Society Board for four years; and Literacy leader and work and business leader in the Lehi Second Ward. At the present time she is working on the Lehi Stake Sunday School Board.